

NICE NEST, BLAKESLEY!

Trista converted Max's old room into one fit for her new little princess.

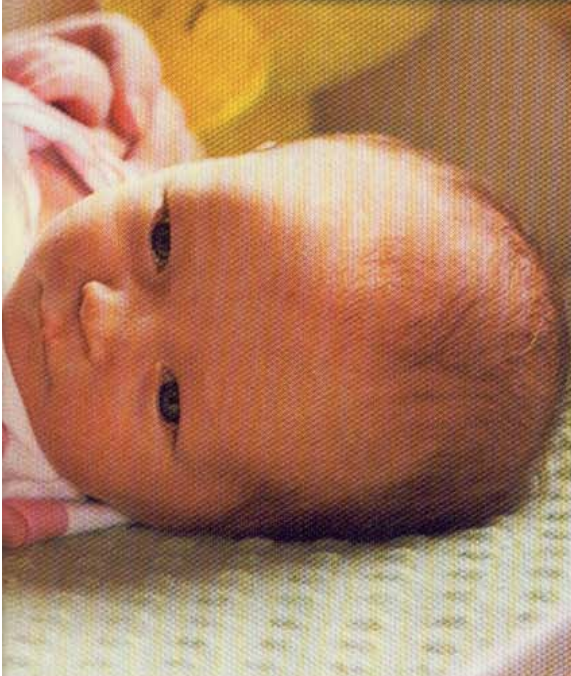

INSIDE HER NURSERY

Now that Max, 1, has a big-boy room, Trista has transformed his former nursery for Blakesley. "It's all the same furniture, which we love — it's from Bratt Decor," Trista tells Life & Style. "And New Arrivals did all the bedding and the adorable accessories in both rooms." Trista had the room's blue stripe repainted pink to give the space a girlier vibe. She also couldn't resist hanging a chandelier in the center of the room. "It's just so much fun," she says. "I absolutely love it."

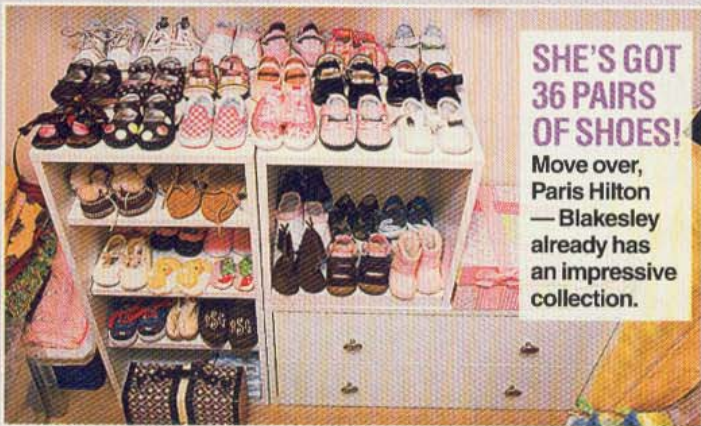

SHE'S BORROWING MAX'S BOOKS

"Some of my favorites are Guess How Much I Love You and I Love It When You Smile," says Trista.

SHE'S GOT 36 PAIRS OF SHOES!

Move over, Paris Hilton — Blakesley already has an impressive collection.

WOW! THAT'S A LOT OF ONESIES

Looks like Blakesley won't ever have to worry about wearing the same thing twice!
